

Teresa Edmondson, M.Ed, Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC)

Teresa Karns Edmondson, MEd, LPC, is the founder of Edmondson Consulting Group. Her firm works both nationally and internationally with Fortune 100 companies, developing programs to assist teams, managers, and executive leaders in learning how to respond more thoughtfully and less reactively during times of significant transition and organizational change. She currently delivers Bowen-based leadership development workshops and executive coaching programs to businesses and industry worldwide.

Ms. Edmondson began working intensively with Bowen Theory in January of 2006, and attended the Post Graduate program at the Bowen Center for the Study of the Family in Washington D.C. from 2006-2008. She has previously served as faculty at CSNSF in Houston, TX; has been a contributor to the Family Systems Forum, and is a prior presenter at the Wisdom for the Ages Conference. She has participated in the Navigating Systems program in Washington DC and is currently serving as a Committee Member for The Murray Bowen Archives Project.

Contact Information:

Teresa@edmondsonconsulting.com

+1 713.898.0321

